SMUGGLER WIFE OF N. Y. JUSTICE GETS FINE, JAIL

Judge Gives Tongue- lashing To Woman In Chaperau Case

New York, April 11.—(AP)—Mrs. Edgar J. Lauer, 58, the wife of a state supreme court justice, today was fined $2,500 and sentenced to three months in jail for conspiring with Albert N. Chaperau, an international adventurer, to smuggle about $1,833 worth of Parisian clothing into this country on her behalf to save $680 in duty. Chaperau drew a 5-year prison term and $5,000 fine.

For acting as a government informant against them in a startling disclosure that also eventually entangled comedian George Burns and Jack Benny, Rosa Weber, a pro-Nazi maid discharged by the Lauers for interrupting a dinner conversation to defend Adolf Hitler, will profit by several thousand dollars.

Benny paid a $10,000 fine and Burns $8,000 for smuggling deals with Chaperau. Twenty-five per cent of the total $25,500, a government spokesman said, will go to Rosa Weber, as well as a like percentage of the various customs penalties collected and any yet to be collected. These probably will aggregate $10,000. The reward for informing thus would be $8,875.

Maid Keeping "Quiet"
U. S. Attorney John T. Cahill's office declined, incidentally, to disclose the maid's present whereabouts, except to remark that she had another job now and didn't want to lose it. The relatively severe penalty against Chaperau, who has a police record in two continents, was explained in part by the fact that he not only had violated the law himself but was accused of having persuaded Benny, Burns and Mrs. Lauer in turn to fall in with his scheme to beat the customs by the use of diplomatic immunity.

In each case it was Chaperau who brought in the smuggled goods, by representing himself as a consular attaché of Nicaragua.

Mrs. Lauer, who was fined $10,400 in 1937 for smuggling, thus had a previous record. Federal Judge Vincent L. Leibel gave her a tongue-lashing for her "constant breaches of the customs laws."

"Immune Vanity"
"Madam," he said starting down at her, "you have suffered from an insane vanity. You are in considering your physical condition, your age and your sex. I am led to the conclusion that my jail sentence imposed should be comparatively short, but I must impose a jail sentence because a heavy fine has seemed to have no effect."

"You are a prominent woman, the wife of a prominent man, and the public in general expects the same justice to be administered to the rich and the poor, the great and the lowly."

She was sent to the women's house of detention to begin serving her sentence immediately.

The disposition of the Chaperau and Lauer cases cleaned up the whole affair of Chaperau. All four defendants pleaded guilty.

MURDER MYSTERY
Chicago, April 11.—(AP)—Police Capt. Louis Klaczko said today questioning of Mrs. Olga Hayden, 28, developed no new clues to the killing of her husband, Charles, 52, who was shot down Sunday in front of a ballroom where a walkathon he helped promote was in progress.

RIVER DEATH
Wilmington, Ill., April 11.—(AP)—Edward Stahl, 65, a retired tire shop operator, drowned today when his boat overturned while he was fishing in a millrace of the Kankakee river.

ANTI-WAR MOVE Introduce Resolution To Keep Illinoisans Out

Springfield, Ill., April 11.—(AP)—A joint resolution providing that in the event of a general conflict in Europe "no citizen of Illinois be sent to fight in any foreign country" was introduced in the House today.

The resolution, introduced by Democratic Representative William F. Gibbs of Quincy and Jesse J. Fidler of Canton, was sent to the executive committee after Republican objections blocked Fidler's attempt to get it considered immediately.

The proposal also called upon the general assembly to urge Congress to "take the profit out of war" by permitting the federal government to take over control of natural resources and industries manufacturing war materials if this nation is attacked.

ROOSEVELT TIP ON PENDERGAST PARTLY PROVED

President Admits Gov. Stark Mentioned The Case To Him

Washington, April 11.—(AP)—Reports that Governor Lloyd C. Stark of Missouri gave President Roosevelt the tip that led to indictment of T. J. Pendergast, Democratic boss of Kansas City, gained strength today when the president told reporters that Stark had mentioned the Kansas City investigation to him on one occasion.

Pendergast was indicted recently on a charge of evading federal income taxes on $150,000.

Questioned at his press conference about the inquiry which resulted in the indictment, Mr. Roosevelt said some persons had discussed it with him, but that he had not been in touch with the matter for a long time.

He said he had referred the persons who talked with him to the treasury or other departments.

Asked specifically whether Stark had discussed the subject with him, the president replied that the governor had mentioned it and that he had referred him to the treasury, which investigates tax cases.

Stark, who has been mentioned by friends as a possible appointee to the Roosevelt cabinet, as opponent of Democratic Senator Truman in 1940 or even a dark horse Democratic presidential candidate, was elected governor in 1936 with Pendergast support.

Soon after the indictments were returned by a federal grand jury, the Kansas City Star published a story saying the governor had given Mr. Roosevelt the tip that led to development of the case.

Janitor Confesses Setting Fatal Fire

Chicago, April 11.—(AP)—A fire fire kindled in an apartment building by a vengeful young negro brought death to seven negro occupants today.

Six of the victims—two women and four children—perished in the flaming structure at 2853 South Michigan avenue early this morning and another girl died in a hospital this afternoon.

Ten persons, including two firemen, were injured.

Assistant State's Attorney Francis McCullie said William Warren, 21, the janitor, confessed he set the blaze to "get even" with the owner because he believed he was underpaid.

The prosecutor announced he would seek the indictment of Warren on murder charges.

TEACHING LOBSTERS TO DIVE WILL BE RESUMED

Noank, Conn., April 11.—(AP)—The state of Connecticut will once again be teaching its baby lobsters to dive, as soon as hatchery quarters are established in an old mill here.

GOV. HORNER IS KEPT VIRTUALLY IN 'SECLUSION'

Doctors Insist On A Minimum Of Work For Executive

Springfield, Ill., April 11.—(AP)—Adhering to orders of his doctors, Gov. Henry Horner remained in virtual seclusion in the executive mansion today, his first in the capital after his five months' illness.

The physicians' directions that he devote not more than two hours a day to state business were followed and he talked with "only a few" friends, Mrs. Ellen Cornwell, his personal secretary explained.

Lewis' Successor
Arthur P. O'Brien, a secretary, was designated by Mr. Horner to represent him tomorrow at the state funeral in Washington for U. S. Senator James Hamilton Lewis. Aides of the governor said the appointment of a successor to Lewis, to serve in the Senate until the 1940 general election, probably would be deferred at least until late this week.

The governor probably will not visit his statehouse offices regularly for a week or two, aides said. They said his plan is to discuss the most pressing state matters each day at the executive mansion with Lieut. Gov. John Steele and other administration executives who served on a "regency" during his absence.

Announce Vote On Relief Bill In The Senate

Washington, April 11.—(AP)—Here is the vote by which the Senate rejected today a proposal to add $500,000 to the $100,000,000 relief bill.

For $500,000: (28).
Democrats—Andrews, Bone, Clark of Idaho, Downey, Green, Guffy, Hughes, Johnson of Colorado, La Follette, Mead, Minton, Murray, Neely, Pepper, Pittman, Schwartz, Schwellenbach, Smathers, Thomas of Oklahoma, Thomas of Utah, Wagner, Walsh, Wheeler—24.

Republicans—Danaher—1; Farmer-Labor—Lundeen—1; Progressive—La Follette—1; Independent—Norris—1. Against $500,000: (49).

Democrats—Adams, Ashurst, Bailey, Barkley, Brown, Bulow, Burke, Byrd, Byrne, Clark of Missouri, Connally, George, Gerry, Gillette, Harrison, Hatch, Hayden, Herring, Holt, King, Lucas, McCarran, McKellar, Overton, Radcliffe, Reynolds, Russell, Smith, Stewart, Truman—31.

Republicans—Austin, Barbour, Bridges, Capper, Davis, Gibson, Gurney, Holman, Johnson of California, Lodge, McNary, Nye, Reed, Taft, Townsend, Vandenberg, White—17. Farmer-Labor—Shipstead—1.

Pairs were announced as follows: Ellender, Democrat, for $150,000,000, and Tydings, Democrat, against; Frazier, Republican, for, and Hale, Republican, against; Hill, Democrat, for, and Van Nuys, Democrat, against; Donahue, Democrat, for, and Tobey, Republican, against; Bilbo, Democrat, for, and Wiley, Republican, against.

Senators Logan and Glass, Democrats, were recorded as opposed to the proposal but did not vote.

Flynn Testifies In Champaign Inquiry

Champaign, Ill., April 11.—(AP)—Mayor James D. Flynn and Police Commissioner Frank Hanley were called as witnesses today as the grand jury investigating vice and gambling in Champaign county entered its final week.

Also called were Dr. C. George Appelle, former city health officer, Virgil Burgess, city commissioner, Leo O'Neill, Champaign contractor, and an unidentified witness. It was Burgess' second appearance before the jury.

No witnesses were called during the first few hours after the jury reconvened. Foreman James Griffith told reporters the jury was considering a rough draft of a report.

INDIANA STANDARD OIL
Chicago, April 11.—(AP)—Standard Oil company of Indiana today reported consolidated net earnings for 1938 of $27,771,978, equal to $1.82 a share on 15,272,030 shares outstanding. Earnings in 1937 were $55,950,784, or $3.66 a share.

DEATH BY TRUCK
Plainfield, Ill., April 11.—(AP)—Carol Grunwald, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Grunwald, farmers near here, was injured fatally today by a truck as she was crossing the road at her home. State police said the truck was driven by Emil Drisking of Chicago.

Senate Refuses To Add Fifty Millions To Relief Measure

Passes WPA Bill on Voice Vote After Larger Sum Defeated 49-28; Goes Immediately To The White House

Washington, April 11.—(AP)—The senate refused, by a vote of 49 to 28 tonight, to add $500,000,000 to the $100,000,000 relief bill. It then approved the measure on a voice vote and sent it to the White House.

President Roosevelt had requested a $150,000,000 appropriation to carry WPA through until the end of the fiscal year on July 1, and a group led by Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) worked vigorously to obtain that amount. The president wrote Pepper today that if only $100,000,000 were voted, 300,000 or 400,000 relief jobs would be eliminated.

Barkley Speaks
The final vote came after Majority Leader Barkley (D-Ky.) had vigorously defended an agreement by some administration supporters, economy bloc Democrats and Republicans for a $100,000,000 appropriation.

Barkley told the senate he had positive knowledge that the house would not consent to an increase in the allotment, and that it would be futile for the senate to vote more. The senate quickly rejected a substitute measure proposed by Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) which would have permitted the WPA to continue relief rolls at their present level until June 7. In the meantime, congress would have investigated to determine what additional appropriation was necessary.

Also rejected was a proposal by Senator Schwellenbach (D-Wash.) which would have prevented the WPA from dismissing any workers in actual need who could not procure other employment.

Supplementary Fund
The $100,000,000 appropriation will go to supplement funds already available for relief for the fiscal year ending June 30. It brings to $213,000,000 funds appropriated for relief in this fiscal year.

During debate on the measure, Barkley announced that although he wanted a full $150,000,000, Mr. Roosevelt would sign the $100,000,000 bill. Barkley also disclosed that the president would ask a $1,500,000,000 relief appropriation for the full fiscal year beginning July 1.

NEW TYPE U. S.
BOMBING PLANE
CRASHES, BURNS
Half Million Dollar Ship Demolished;
Officer Hurt

Dayton, O., April 11.—(AP)—A new type $500,000 attack bomber, bidding for a place in America's rearmament, crashed and burned today on a farm near Wright Field.

Three air corps officers testing the nine-ton ship walked from it unaided as gasoline-fueled flames broke out. The pilot, First Lieut. George F. McGuire, suffered head cuts. Major Younger, A. Pitts and Second Lieut. James W. Anderson Jr. were uninjured.

Maneuver Practice
The ship was flown here a month ago from the California plant of North American Aviation Corp. for acceptance tests. The crew flew low today over the field and contiguous territory simulating ground strafing and other attack maneuvers.

Officers said the cause of the crash likely would not be known until a board of inquiry concludes an investigation. In air corps competition three weeks ago a Seversky single-seat pursuit ship took fire in mid-air here but Pilot Frank Sinclair parachuted to safety.

Horner Last Hope
Of Morris Slayer

Springfield, Ill., April 11.—(AP)—Elvin Wood, convicted slayer of his well-to-do Morris, Ill., neighbor and benefactor, Abner Nelson, today put his hope to escape electrocution at Joliet prison Friday in Governor Horner.

The pardon board, which heard pleas of Wood's pastor, the Rev. J. J. Obenshain and the family's attorney, A. E. Viner, said the farmer was not sane, when he shot his friend and threw the victim's body into the Illinois river in a bungled ransom plot, was expected to make its recommendations to the governor tomorrow.

At today's hearing, Grundy county State's Attorney S. J. Holderman defended the death penalty meted to his former school-mate.

SPEEDER AT 60
Lancaster, Pa., April 11.—(AP)—Pleading guilty to a third offense of speeding 60 miles an hour, a 60-year-old woman was given the choice today of losing her driver's license or putting a governor on her car to limit it to 50 miles an hour. She said she'd get the governor.

Blood Transfusion Substitute

Memphis, Tenn., April 11.—(AP)—Successful use of an abdominal fluid as a substitute for blood in transfusions was reported today by Dr. H. A. Davis, a member of the University of Tennessee medical faculty.

Dr. Davis said the liquid is ascitic fluid and is chemically the same as blood except that it lacks the cellular or corpuscular structure.

He said this lack of the cellular structure made it impractical for transfusions in cases where the corpuscles and protein content of normal blood were needed but declared the fluid was entirely satisfactory in treating cases of shock due to loss of blood.

In such cases, he said, "what you want to do is to restore to the patient the fluid volume lost and this is accomplished by the use of this substitute."

COAL INDUSTRY FACES GENERAL HALT IN WORK

Threats Made By Lewis Unless New Contract Signed

New York, April 11.—(AP)—John L. Lewis threatened today to halt work in the entire soft coal industry unless an agreement is reached soon between the United Mine Workers and the mine operators in the Appalachian region.

In statements issued simultaneously, the UMW president and Charles O'Neill, spokesman for the operators, disclosed that negotiations for a new labor contract virtually had reached a stalemate.

Other Operations
Meanwhile, all union miners in the Appalachian region, with the exception of skeleton maintenance crews, have ceased work. Operations in outlying districts have continued under special agreements, which Lewis threatened today to cancel.

The Appalachian region produces 70 per cent of the nation's soft coal and its labor contract terms traditionally have been the basis for the rest of the industry.

"It is a bad time for the operators to undertake to destroy the United Mine Workers in 1939 to please the labor-baiting interests who are opposed to collective bargaining," Lewis said.

Queen Too Ill To See Exiled Husband, Zog

Larissa, Greece, April 11.—(AP)—Queen Geraldine of Albania, too ill to see her infant son or exiled husband King Zog, was removed today from a private villa to a hospital.

The condition of the beautiful, 23-year-old queen, of Hungarian-American parentage, was said to be serious. She was running a high temperature as a result of her flight from the advancing Italian army on Friday, only two days after the birth of the crown prince in Thirana, Albanian capital.

Her trip was over rough, twisting Albanian mountain roads in a makeshift ambulance to the border and thence by railroad to this little industrial city.

The six-day-old Prince Skander was said to be in good health.

Cites Reason For Railroad's Deficit

Chicago, April 11.—(AP)—Fred W. Sargent, president of the Chicago & North Western railroad, told stockholders at their annual meeting today that until conditions returned to normal they could not expect the road's common stock to show a profit.

"We can't get that way by the government sealing up all the grains which the railroads would be moving if allowed to flow."

Sargent declared he saw "decided hope" for the railroads, however, in the present attitude of Congress and the consideration being given to the president's report by the committee of six.

Consolidated net loss of the Chicago & North Western system last year was $15,494,101, compared with $15,112,892 in 1937, it was announced.

JOAN CRAWFORD WINS DIVORCE FROM TONE

Los Angeles, April 11.—(AP)—Joan Crawford finally won her divorce from Franchot Tone today, but it required a personal appearance in court.

Earlier, Joan attempted to obtain the decree "by deposition" while in New York where she danced with Tone.

Superior Judge Benjamin Scheinman refused to act on the petition, however, citing attention focused on the case and saying he did not want his court to get the reputation of issuing "mail order divorces," and demanding the actress give her testimony in person.

Pale and peaked, from a recent attack of influenza, the star arrived in court unannounced. She wasn't due for the hearing until April 18, but she expects to be heard at movie acting then.

Managers said prices of rooms in the five large downtown hotels range from $10 to $25 daily with the prettiest must pay for a minimum of $100 a week.

AMERICAN MOTHER Mrs. Elias Compton Is Given the Honor

New York, April 11.—(AP)—Mrs. Elias Compton of Wooster, Ohio, who has three Phi Beta Kappa sons listed in "Who's Who in America" and a daughter who is a leader in missionary education today was named "The American Mother for 1939."

Widow of a veteran Ohio educator who taught philosophy at Wooster College for 41 years she was chosen as "representative of the best there is in womanhood" by the American Mothers' National Committee of the Golden Rule Foundation.

Her distinguished children are Prof. Arthur Holly Compton of the University of Chicago, 1927 winner of the Nobel prize for physics; President Karl Taylor Compton of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Wilson Martindale Compton, lawyer-economist and general manager of the National Lumber Manufacturers Association; and Mary, wife of Dr. C. Herbert Rice, Principal of Christian College, Allabedah, India, herself a Presbyterian missionary.

MARION CHOSEN AS LOCATION OF VETS HOSPITAL

Will Serve Downstate,
Western Kentucky,
South Indiana

Washington, April 11.—(AP)—A knoll on the western boundary of Marion, Ill., was chosen today as the site of a new $1,400,000 veterans' hospital to serve downstate Illinois, Western Kentucky and Southern Indiana.

Approval of the site by President Roosevelt ended a contest of many months duration among nearly a dozen Illinois towns to obtain the facility.

Representative Keller, Ave. Ill., Democrat, expressing great satisfaction with the selection, described the site as "a beautiful location on a rise of ground half a mile west of the courthouse and overlooking broad Crab Orchard lake."

Plans for the hospital call for 500 beds—150 for hospital and 350 for domiciliary purposes—and provision for enlargement of the plant when needed.

Selection of Marion came two weeks after Brigadier General Frank T. Hines, Veterans Administrator, had made a tour of Illinois studying prospective sites. Emphasized by Marion supporters was a series of artificial lakes for water conservation which they maintained would provide an opportunity for recreational facilities near the hospital. Marion is in Keller's congressional district.

Among the sites advocated for the hospital were Champaign, Decatur, Harrisburg, Mt. Vernon, Mt. Carmel, Hillsboro and Mattoon.

Justice Hughes 77; Spends Day at Work

Washington, April 11.—(AP)—Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes spent his 77th birthday anniversary today hard at work in preparation for the next session of the Supreme Court, Monday, April 17.

His secretary said the jurist, who became ill March 4 after addressing a joint session of Congress, now is "very well," and is working on litigation before the tribunal.

There was no unusual observance of the birthday.

Senator Austin (R-Vt.), a member of the Senate judiciary committee, paid tribute to Hughes today on the Senate floor. He called the chief justice a powerful champion of that constitutionalism which keeps "democratic government from destroying itself by the excesses of its own power."

THESE JAILBIRDS CAN COME AND GO AT WILL

Joliet, Ill., April 11.—(AP)—A colony of purple martins whose forefathers have spent each summer here since 1905 moved into their freshly cleaned and decorated apartment house today on the old prison grounds.

The first of the families arrived April 4. The earliest they ever arrived was on March 26, 1925; the latest on April 15, 1929.

NEWSPAPER AWARD

Philadelphia, April 11.—(AP)—The New York Herald Tribune has been awarded the Francis Wayland Ayer Cup for 1939 for typographical excellence in the annual exhibition of newspaper typography conducted by N. W. Ayer & Sons, Inc. It was announced today.

The judges were General Hugh S. Johnson, columnist; Quentin Reynolds, associate editor of Collier's; and Walter Danks, Page One editor.

BRITAIN HOPING ITALY WILL YET SUPPORT PEACE

Hand Of Appeasement Extended; Hitler Def- initely "Out"

By the Associated Press
Great Britain, still hoping to split the Rome-Berlin axis, yesterday was reported to have extended the hand of appeasement to Premier Mussolini by accepting 11 Duce's assurances that Italy would go no farther into the Balkans than Albania.

Prime Minister Chamberlain, who definitely has abandoned his appeasement course toward Germany and is

FRENCH FLEET MOVES

Paris, April 11.—(AP)—Most of the French Mediterranean fleet sailed tonight from the Toulon naval base for an unknown destination as France strengthened her defenses in the face of a troubled international situation.

Further information concerning the naval move was hidden, however, behind strict censorship on all military and naval information. The fleet's departure from Toulon, France's main naval base on the Mediterranean coast came after the government had approved extraordinary measures to protect French territory in any eventuality.

actively building a "stop Hitler" bloc in Europe, was reported to have decided to give Premier Mussolini "one more chance" to keep his promises and the peace of Europe.

These promises included, it was understood, a pledge to take the Italian soldiers out of Spain soon. A date suggested was after May 2, when a Nationalist victory parade is expected to be held in Madrid with the Italians participating.

Chancellor Hitler, meanwhile, was pictured by an authoritative informant in Berlin as believing that France and Britain might decide this year is the best one for challenging expanding Germany and Italy.

Washington Editorial
In Washington President Roosevelt expressed hearty approval of a newspaper editorial calling for "a preponderant show of force" by democratic nations to halt the dictators and prevent war.

Although Britain was expediting her rearmament program and tightening her home defenses, she was making no provocative moves.

The French government adopted extraordinary defense measures drawn up by military experts over the week end to protect France in any eventuality.

Anti-Islamic sentiment, stirred in the Islamic world by the occupation of Moslem Albania, flared into widespread demonstrations of protest in Algeria.

Thousands of Moslems were dispersed in Oran when they attempted to march on the Italian consulate.

The Italian government indicated its military manpower was at an "imposing level" sufficient to cope with the crisis. Foreign observers placed the number of Italians under arms at between 1,000,000 and 1,200,000.

Bulgaria Hits Nazis
Bulgaria suddenly dissolved the German-supported National Socialist party for what police charged was a plot to change the form of the Bulgarian government. Police of Bulgaria, Germany's World War ally, said it had become necessary to "take drastic measures."

Diplomatic circles in Bucharest indicated Turkey had granted Rumania's demand that the Dardanelles straits, vital link between the Mediterranean and the Black Seas, be kept open for passage of military and other supplies to Rumania in case of war.

Italian troops, meanwhile, extended their occupation of Albania to the Greek frontier at Biskitio. However, dispatches reaching neighboring Yugoslavia said strong resistance to the Italian forces was continuing both in southern Albania, along the Greek frontier, and in the north beyond Scutari.

Hungary, resigning from the League of Nations in the midst of the crisis, indicated her loyalty to the Rome-Berlin axis. The move appeared to clarify her position concerning British-Polish attempts to enlist her in the "stop Hitler" bloc.

ELLIS H. PARKER

Philadelphia, April 11.—(AP)—The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals upheld the conviction of Ellis H. Parker, former Burlington County, N. J., detective, and his son, Ellis Jr., on charges of conspiracy to abduct a former Trenton, N. J., attorney and force a confession in the Lindbergh baby kidnapping.

More Marks To Make

The wet and dry issue promises to headline public interest in next Tuesday's city election. But the voters shouldn't permit themselves to become so exercised over that proposition that they neglect the other business at hand.

Without the wet and dry issue, the election would remain important any way. For at that time four aldermen, one from each ward, are to be elected. In addition to choosing councilmen, the voters will ballot on a proposition to provide revenue for fire protection.

The job of assessing the right men to serve in the council should not be slighted in the excitement generated by the wet and dry battle. The fire protection proposition, involving a tax to increase funds, should be studied and acted upon by every voter.

Don't stop making marks at the polls until you have voted on everything to be decided. All of the issues are important.

Meaning of "Yes" and "No"

No matter how plainly a proposition is stated on a ballot, there are some who become confused when they go to vote. They fail to read or to comprehend the wording of the question clearly, so that the "Yes" they mark is sometimes "No" and the "No" they mark is sometimes "Yes."

Both the wet and dry forces are now engaged in schooling the voters on the proper way to vote in next Tuesday's city election, so that their individual sentiment is certain to be registered. Every voter who enters a booth should know how to mark his ballot correctly, regardless of which way he votes.

The question to be voted on Tuesday is: "Shall the sale at retail of alcoholic liquor be prohibited in Jacksonville, Illinois."

The question is simple. It merely asks if the sale of liquor here shall be prohibited, which means prevented by law, or not allowed. Dry voters will vote "Yes," and wet voters "No." There is really no need for mis-

When A Bus Was "News"

The photograph of Dr. J. Walton Dace of Winchester and his automobile of 1909 vintage, appearing in Tuesday's Journal and Courier, recalled to mind the stir that a strange auto or bus brought to the Jacksonville business district a quarter century or more ago, when motor vehicles were just getting a foothold, and there were no paved highways extending from town to town.

Reporters of the Jacksonville newspapers were on the lookout for visiting cars in those days, and a bus was "news." Sighting a strange automobile in the business district 25 or 30 years ago, a reporter considered it his duty to investigate. He usually wound up by obtaining the names of the driver and his party, where they were from and where they were going.

The fact that a daring soul set out in a mechanical contraption over virtually unmapped dirt roads, and moved from town to town, was of interest to the public. A strange car on the streets aroused curiosity—newspaper reporters were about the only persons who had license to walk up and boldly inquire, "Who are you?"

Then a few years after the period of which we speak, a few motor buses began to move about over the partly completed hard road system. When a bus came to town it was spotted by many who wondered "what it was doing." Again it was the reporters who solved the mystery.

Jacksonville did not witness much through traffic until the completion of the Jacksonville-Springfield paved highway about 1920. Until that time, oiled surfaces were considered speedways. But hard roads came quickly after that, and people no longer took more than passing notice of California or New York licenses, or buses which looked "awfully big" in those days.

Back To Her Alma Mater

Ruth Bryan Owen Rohde, native of Jacksonville, and former American minister to Denmark, is going back to her early scholastic environment, when she takes a position on the faculty of Monticello seminary at Godfrey, north of Alton.

Mrs. Rohde is a graduate of Monticello. Her mother, formerly Mary Baird, also was a student there, and at Monticello she frequently had visits from William Jennings Bryan, a student at Illinois College, whose wife she afterwards became.

Ruth Bryan was remembered at Monticello as a student much given to writing short stories, plays and poetry. She later took degrees from several other colleges.

After spending her young womanhood in the public limelight as a daughter of the then most famous platform speaker in the country, she later married Captain Reginald Owen, and after his death was a member of Congress, later appointed minister to Denmark, and there married Captain Borge Rohde, of the Danish royal guard.

Mrs. Rohde served in two terms of Congress from Florida, and has a career of distinction as traveler, lecturer and author. Her duties at Monticello will probably not deter her from further pursuing her cosmopolitan career.

RECOVERS FROM OPERATION

Mrs. Rose Brooks of Pittsfield, mother of Mrs. Warren Brockhouse of this city, is recovering satisfactorily from a recent operation performed at Passavant hospital.

Rotarians Hear Youth Of City Declare Faith In American Principles

A genuine faith in the ability of democracy to weather the storms of the present was expressed Tuesday morning by young people from the local high school and colleges who formed a Youth Hearing Panel at the morning program of the Rotary district conference Tuesday. William Allen, Canadian director of Rotary International, assisted by Prof. David of Shurtleff college and D. L. Hardin, conducted the panel.

Twelve young people, nine from the high school and three college students, freely expressed their opinions under the questioning of the leaders.

While several declared they believed democracy was sufficiently well founded in the hearts of the American people that it could survive and that American youth would not be misled by isms, there were those who declared that the various isms should be given free reign in order that they might know them and what they do. One declared that if we do not allow minorities to have free expression, our democracy is no better than the isms, as one of democracy's strong points of consideration of minority rights.

Those taking part in the Youth Hearing Panel were Ben Roodhouse, Jr., Glenn Sims, Mary Kay Hardesty, Ella Jane Rogers, Mary Jo Brown, Catherine Angel, Bob Oxtoby, Isabel Evans and Paul Findley from the local high school, and Robert Fay, William Clark and Miss Ruth Chilton, representing the colleges.

Watch European Events
The first question was directed at the youth's interest in current events. One man said he was interested in events now transpiring in the Mediterranean, "because I might have to go to war." He thought that propaganda had much to do with shaping the American mind, and was pessimistic as to the future if war starts in Europe. He knew he would be in it. "From a patriotic motive?" he was asked.

"Probably not," he replied, "but by the time the fifth brass band has gone by, I would be ready to join, and

Communications

Editor Journal-Courier:

Our dry friends who quoted Mark 10:42 in Sunday's Journal should be more careful in quoting the Divine Word of God. You know there is an ancient saw concerning the Devil's quoting of scripture. My dry friends are perhaps unaware that both the Old and New Testaments make frequent references to the lawful use of wine. Judges 9:13 refers to wine as cheering to both God and man.

Before our dry friends call in our Divine Master as a witness to the justness of their campaign they should read: Judges 19:19, Psalms 104, Proverbs 31:6, Ecclesiastes 10:19, John 2:1 Timothy 5:23. They should read and re-read John 7:7 and apply the lesson taught therein to themselves. Some excellent advice for both wets and dries is found in Matthew 7:15. The Bible often refers to the use of wine and even more often does it condemn drunkenness, gluttony, lust and kindred sins. Because some people abuse the gifts a Gracious God has bestowed on man is no good reason to heap whole hearted condemnation upon those Divine gifts. An atheist and a scientist—Sir Oliver Lodge, penned these words "The more I see of the things about me, the more certain I am that some Divine Intelligence planned the universe and the world within which we live." (Sir Oliver renounced atheism late in life.) Our dry friends condemn narcotics, yet when their own bodies are broken they scream for that Godgiven relief opium. Isn't it conceivable that God gave us a mild narcotic, alcohol, to sooth "the slings and arrows of an outrageous fortune?" Proverbs 31:6, 7, seem to justify the above question.

Perhaps, He, who created the grape and the yeast germ, knew just a wee bit more about the needs of humanity than those who misquote His Divine Word.

SAY! The devil wants you to vote "NO" this time. There are a lot of his agents around trying to manufacture arguments why you should so vote. They will tell you there would be more whiskey, beer, etc., sold, more bootleggers, if we do away with "legal" liquor.

SAY! If that is true, why are distilleries and breweries spending some $50,000,000 annually to get you to use their product and to vote to have them PAY A LICENSE TO SELL IT?

Another stock argument is that if you drive the saloon out of town, "it will ruin business." Here are some of the types of "business" it will ruin:

1. The saloon business—too bad!
2. The gambling business—that's so!
3. The crime-racket business—!!!
4. Houses of prostitution—true!
5. Police court and jail business—well!

6. Pauper and orphan-making business—you don't say!

7. Divorce business—well, really! But—what legitimate business?

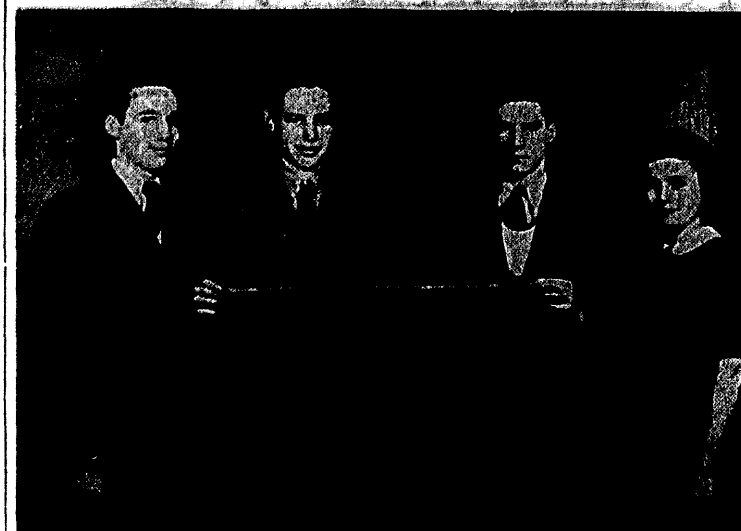

Another chestnut is that "the working man will be thrown out of employment." In spite of the claim that "liquor" has put one million men to

"Glad I'm Alive!"... life is pleasant

if you are feeling good and "peppy." That's what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery did for me. It gave me a better appetite, increased the flow of gastric juice and thus improved my digestion. It's a tonic that helps build up your system. It's the best thing I ever took. I feel like a new man. I'm glad I'm alive!

because of his ideas and what he does to promulgate them.

"We should know that the four or five weaker nations that seem to be in danger from the European fascist bloc can match it in man power. The ability of the allied forces which would oppose this block to finance a military campaign, provide man power and to blockade ports and otherwise conduct an active war is many times greater than that of the bloc itself."

Rotary An American Ideal

"We in America must endeavor to keep open those intellectual avenues of communication with people of the old world who are our friends and who sympathize with us and with lovers of liberty everywhere, and not to let those avenues be closed by prejudiced speech or action. Charity is one of the key words in the attitude which should prevail in this matter."

"Rotary, which was originally an American idea, has gotten into foreign nations, and it has been shaped to all sorts of purposes. It is up to us, when a club is lost somewhere through prevalence of hostile ideologies, to organize two clubs in places where Rotary can flourish in its true spirit."

"We have in this country people of various pressure groups which seek to shape our foreign policy; as a consequence we have no foreign policy and it is no wonder, when so many persons are engaged in lobbying to get the government to do this or not to do that, instead of becoming genuine Americans and trying to help the country solve its own domestic problems."

Rotary Anns were entertained Tuesday morning with visits to the state schools, where demonstrations of the work were given.

Try This to Clean Nasal Congestion

Flood the nasal passage with SINASITTEC. Different from sprays and drops that may do only half the job. SINASITTEC loosens and flushes out the thick, sticky mucous secretion that often blocks drainage and causes headache, sneezing, and irritation. Promotes easy breathing as it cools and soothes hot, irritated, swollen nasal tissue. Easy to use. You apply SINASITTEC from the nasal douche. Ask any good druggist for SINASITTEC. Full directions with each bottle. Every SINUS-CATARRH or HEAD COLD SUFFERER should know the joys of nasal comfort it can bring due to relief of nasal congestion. Your money back if the first application doesn't convince you. No narcotics. Harmless.

Born on Easter 57 Years Ago, Honored When Dates Coincide

First Time Since Birth That Easter Has Fallen on Same Day as Anniversary

Manchester—Mr. and Mrs. Junior Hays, daughters Eloise and Doris and

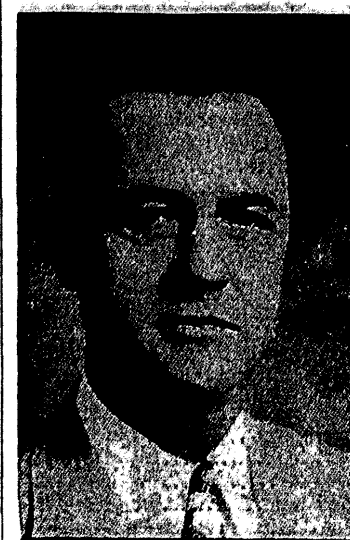

Mrs. Florence Tendick, attended an Easter dinner party at the home of Mrs. Hays parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Blakeman and family of Plainview. The dinner was in honor of Mrs. Blakeman's 57th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Blakeman was born on Easter Sunday the 9th of April, 1882, and this is the first time the date of her birth has been on an Easter Sunday.

Relatives of Mrs. Nello Patterson very successfully and pleasantly carried out a birthday surprise on her on Sunday in honor of her 72nd birthday anniversary. A sumptuous pot-luck dinner was served at the noon hour. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Dobson, Mr. and Mrs. Less Hane and son Donald, west of town. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dobson and daughter Caroline and Stanley Dobson of Alsey and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Riley.

Mrs. Patterson was the recipient of a number of gifts among which was a beautiful bouquet of flowers from a girlfriend friend, Mrs. Ada Cuddy of Roodhouse.

MEN LOVE GIRLS WITH PEP

If you are peppy and full of fun, men will love you to dance and parties. BUT if you are cross, listless and tired, men won't be interested. Men don't like "quiet" girls. When they go to parties they want girls along who are full of pep.

So in case you need a good general system tonic, remember for 3 generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling thru" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps build up more physical resistance and thus aids in giving you more pep and lessens distress from female functional disorders.

"DIDN'T KNOW WHERE TO TURN," ASSERTS JACKSONVILLE WIDOW

Says How To Win Relief From 20-Year Suffering Was Problem She Couldn't Solve Till She Took Natex. Feels Fine Now.

"If my wonderful experience doesn't prove the real worth of Natex, then I don't know what could," declared Mrs. Lona Lawrence, respected widow living at 236 E. Douglas St., this city, in a recent conversation with the special Natex representative who is daily meeting scores of local people at Gilbert's Pharmacy, 35 South Side Square.

"Although I suffered for over 20 years and tried just about every medicine I could get my hands on, it wasn't until I took Natex that I learned what real relief was. Constipation had troubled me for years, and I never had any real strength or energy. I had no desire to eat, yet what little I did put into my stomach invariably distressed me with indigestion, gas, shortness of breath and heart fluttering. I couldn't sleep well at night because of high nervousness, and during the day I was made miserable by headaches, dizzy spells, spots before the eyes and aches in my back, arms and legs.

"I simply didn't know where to turn for relief, but when I saw how many local folks were winning relief with Natex, I started on the treatment myself.

"Well, just a few doses got my bowyears. And that was only the start! Now I actually crave food and eat whatever I want without after-digest; my nerves are calm and let me sleep deeply every night. And I haven't had to put up with even a trace of the old headaches, dizziness, spots before the eyes or aches in my back, arms and legs for some time. Yes, I'm only too happy to recommend Natex to anyone now, for it's one medicine I know will do all it's supposed to.

A special Natex representative is at Gilbert's Pharmacy, 35 South Side Square, daily explaining the merits of Natex and how it can help you. It makes you feel like a new person.

Former Pike County Prosecutor Dies in Seattle, Washington

Cousin Here Receives Word of Death of Averille Beavers in West

C. S. Smith received word Tuesday of the death of his cousin, Averille Beavers, a practicing attorney in Seattle, Wash. The body will arrive Friday afternoon at his native town of Perry in Pike county and will be interred Saturday in the cemetery at Chambersburg.

Mr. Beavers attended Brown's Business college here as a young man. He studied law and set up practice first in Pittsfield. He served two terms as state's attorney of Pike county. He then removed to Seattle, where for many years he has enjoyed a lucrative law practice. He is survived by his wife, a former resident of Taylorville.

There's a Good Reason You're Constipated!

When there's something wrong with you, the first rule is: get at the cause. If you are constipated, don't endure it first and cure it afterward. Find out what's giving you the trouble.

Chances are it's simple if you eat the super-refined foods most people do: meat, white bread, potatoes. It's likely you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If this is your trouble, you should eat a natural "bulk" producing food—such as one as the crunchy, toasted, ready-to-eat cereal—Kellogg's All-Bran. All-Bran is the ounce of prevention that's worth a pound of emergency relief. Eat it every day, drink plenty of water, and "Join the Regulars." All-Bran is made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

Jefferson Day Is Marked at Banquet Tuesday Evening

Judge Chas. Bliss Addresses Democratic Women's Club at Meet

The faith of Jefferson in free speech, in education and in the ability of the common people to prosper in a truly representative government was emphasized by Judge Charles Bliss of Taylorville in his address upon "Jefferson, The Statesman and Humanitarian" Tuesday evening at the Jefferson Day banquet of the Democratic Women's club at the Dunlap hotel. Judge Bliss spoke in the place of State Treasurer Louis E. Lewis, who was called suddenly to Washington. His regrets and greetings were extended to the gathering by Judge Bliss.

About 125 members and guests were present at the banquet, which was held to celebrate Jefferson's birthday, April 13. This is to be an annual event for the organization. The program also featured inspiring group singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" and "America," led by Mrs. Mary Wall, accompanied by Mrs. Hutchinson. Mrs. Wall also sang two solo numbers, "Columbia Gem of the Ocean" and "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," at the close of the program. Her colonial costume added to the effectiveness of the music. Prayer was offered by Dr. C. P. McClelland.

Mrs. Henry W. English, president of the Democratic Women's club, presided during the entire program and in her introductory remarks spoke of the purposes of the organization and the interest the members had in educational and cultural programs, seeking a knowledge of the government and the statesman who founded it. She then presented Mrs. Garm Norbury, program chairman, who read greetings from Congressman James Barnes, Judge Jones, T. J. Sullivan, Andy O'Neill and State Treasurer Louis E. Lewis.

Opening his remarks by stating that he realized the life of the great American, Jefferson had been summed up many times, and was not a new story to the gathering, Judge Bliss proceeded to speak of the heritage which had come down to the present day. Nothing in his opinion of the importance of the principles founded by Jefferson could over rate them, for any biographer must admit the great influence of these and of his life to America. The things he stood for are as vital as they were at the time he lived.

"It has been said, that no man was ever so greatly loved by his friends and so bitterly hated by his enemies, as Jefferson."

"The same points over which Jefferson and Hamilton contended, you will hear debated today," said Judge Bliss, "in this world where dictators are powerful."

Judge Bliss reviewed the period of strife Jefferson had in his own state of Virginia, from his own class, which felt that in his ideas of government he was a traitor. He was the first liberalist America ever had and the first exponent of Americanism.

In conclusion, the speaker emphasized the fact his principles can be applied today and are the same as the precepts of the present administration, that the majority has the right to manage the government, for America belongs to the people of America.

The tables were beautifully decorated with spring flowers with a large bouquet of daffodils as a center piece. Seated at the speaker's table were: Mrs. Henry W. English, Judge Charles Bliss, Mrs. Garm Norbury, Mrs. Brune, Mrs. Warren Brockhouse, Mrs. Victor Sheppard, Mrs. Kenneth Woods, Mrs. Walter Wright, Judge Victor Hemphill, Judge Walter Wright, Dr. C. P. McClelland, Mayor H. H. Vasconcellos, Victor Sheppard, Mrs. Ed. Clary, Mrs. Mansfield, Mrs. Brady, Dr. Brown, Mrs. Hayden Walker.

Expressions of appreciation were extended to all committees and chairmen assisting in the success of the banquet and program, including Mrs. Norbury, Miss Helen McGinnis and Mrs. Lucille Brady.

Northrop Wins In Democrat Primary In Scott County

Defeats Smith Barnett For Board; Arthur Walk Is Republican Choice

Winchester, April 11.—Scott county Democrats today nominated Harvey Northrop of Alsey precinct as their candidate for county commissioner, who won over Smith Barnett, present incumbent and chairman of the county board. Republican voters nominated Arthur Walk, also of Alsey, and unopposed, as their candidate for commissioner.

With 14 out of 15 precincts reporting, Northrop had 462 votes to Barnett's 340. Naples, a small precinct, had not reported but the results would not change the standing of the candidates.

Walk's complimentary vote in the Republican primary had not been tabulated tonight.

Dispel Ideas That Football Is Sport Just of Fall Time

It's the Real McCoy at Big Football Founts in All Spring Training

New York, April 11.—(AP)—Any lingering idea that football is a fall sport will be dispelled by a visit to any of the more advanced football founts. The big shoulder guys are at it hot and heavy and the atmosphere is the real McCoy, games n' everything. Practice games with other colleges have become a recognized part of the spring athletic program. Once coaches merely subjected their meat tickets to bruising but unproductive intra-squad scrimmages. Nowadays it isn't surprising to see a team travel 20 miles or so for a "practice" game, played before a respectable crowd with cheer leaders and all the fixings.

It's all very easy to explain. A coach says: "We have to do it. Modern football is so complex it can't be taught in a short time. Proper timing and play execution can't be perfected unless we have long spring drills and scrimmage under game conditions. Squads are so large it takes more time to choose the players."

Coaches like to play outside opposition for three reasons: (1) It gives the squad an incentive; (2) Their own second-stringers used in intra-squad frays are thoroughly familiar with the first team formations; (3) Freshmen, who may make the team as sophomores in the fall, get a chance to show their stuff or lack of it in tough competition.

On the reports of scouts and fanatics we can announce that: Duke, Clemson and Mississippi have been performing heroically in the South and Alabama is back, big and tough.

Fordham, barring accidents of scholastic or physical nature, will be tops in the East with Jim Blimstein and Len Eshmont, two of the East's best halfbacks, ready, willing and able. Army, Cornell and Syracuse loom as minor powers.

Out West, Michigan and Minnesota awed onlookers, and Notre Dame is down to its last 150 players.

Oh, yes. The horned frogs of Texas Christian will be better than fair.

New York Accepts Jockey Don Meade

New York, April 11.—(AP)—Don Meade, the great little jockey who was barred from riding three years ago for betting against his own mounts, was put back in the saddle in New York state today by the Jockey Club. Along with a license, the stewards of the club gave him a verbal going over which left the little Californian hanging on the ropes, realizing that the faintest hint of infraction of the rules from now on will set him down for keeps.

As a result of the reinstatement, unanimously voted by the seven stewards after the club's three-man license committee had recommended it, Meade will have the leg up on Early Delivery, Mrs. Plunkett Stewart's colt, in the Paumonok Handicap, feature of the opening program of the metropolitan racing season at Jamaica Saturday.

It was believed that Kentucky would fall in step immediately, and that the jockey might be aboard a mount in the Kentucky Derby, May 6.

Manchester Man Is Injured in Accident

Elmer Sooy Suffers Bruises When Automobile Is Badly Wrecked

Manchester—Elmer Sooy, Manchester business man, escaped serious injury when the automobile he was driving was almost completely wrecked about two miles south of Manchester at 10:30 p. m. Monday. Sooy escaped with bruises and skin abrasions. Sooy said that he was forced off the road by an approaching transport truck. The machine struck a ditch, rolled over once or twice, and threw Mr. Sooy to the ground. He said he was unconscious for a time, he was not certain how long, but regained consciousness when two men in another truck stopped to give him assistance. The top of the machine, the left side of the body, and the right front fender were smashed, and glass was broken out in front and at the back of the sedan, a 1939 model. The machine was towed to the Brummet Garage in Jacksonville.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

SERIAL STORY

BORDER ADVENTURE

BY OREN ARNOLD
COPYRIGHT, 1939, NEA SERVICE, INC.

Yesterday! Out on their second night of vigil, the officers are suddenly startled by a rock rattling down the canyon. Hope springs Sheridan's arm, feels it is tense.

CHAPTER V

NO man—and certainly no woman—had ever met Senor Luis Faustino Rodarte y Barro without being instantly impressed. Senor Barro might well have stepped out of a motion picture film, or from that chapter in a novel where the handsome, heartless villain is introduced.

Not that he was unreal. On the contrary, he was anything but fictitious; he was so real that the government of the United States of America had spent thousands of dollars combating him and hoping to capture him, and the government of Mexico likewise had a price on his head. Main reason why the government of Mexico did not already have him in prison was that he formerly operated in Mexico city under the name of Portes Juan de Escobar.

When police got too close to his swindling activities there, he moved far away, to enter the business of smuggling aliens into the U. S. A. This was more profitable, and was more of an offense to the American officials than to those of his own countrymen. His fellow Mexicans around Juarez and other towns in the states of Chihuahua and Sonora came to think of him as a fine fellow—an impression he carefully created by geniality, flattery, and sundry gifts.

"Good morning, Don Luis," the priest himself was wont to greet him on the streets of Juarez. "How is it with your body and soul today, my son?"

"The body is fed, but the soul is hungry, padre," the handsome fellow would smile guilelessly. "Here are some silver pesos. Can't the church do something for my soul?"

"Can you not come to the church and see? It is good to give your money, but it is better to give yourself to God."

"I am unworthy to enter your sanctuary, Father. You who are so good a man, and holy, will pray for me!"

Now what could be done with a rogue like that? Especially when he ended the interview with an engaging smile?

Gustus, too, found the same smooth conversation in him, the same lovely flattery, the same engaging smile. Concepcion Contreras in Mexico City had given him her heart, and now hunted for him with her dagger, but she, no more than the police, knew where he was.

He didn't look like a "modern" Mexican who wore conventional American dress, nor yet like the poorer peons with the huge sombreros. He wore (or affected) a more colorful costume—dared pantaloons; a silken sash of crimson and gold; a white satin shirt; a green velvet bolero with golden braid; a black felt hat, stiff and formal and flat crowned, banded with silver conchos, and held down with a rawhide string under the chin. Sometimes he swung a fringed serape over his left shoulder, a highly colorful blanket hand-woven by the Indians of Mexico, tossing it with the jaunty swagger of a bullfighting matador.

That was the Luis Barro whom the public knew. Back of that altogether genial and pleasing front, however, was an organizer with a business that involved risk and danger and that ignored all federal law. At night and in careful privacy, Don Luis would interview his "spotters," men and women, who, living by his bounty, contacted rich people and others who wanted to be smuggled into the United States. They arranged for Luis to "guarantee" them safe crossing. They collected the money for Luis in advance. Often, too, they helped him arrange to send over highly valuable shipments of contraband dope.

Others of these henchmen, operating silently in El Paso and at other points on the American side, kept him informed as to movements of the United States Border Patrol—the one force which was aggressively against him. Some of them watched Border Patrol headquarters itself, noting when officers departed, which direction they seemed to take, when they returned. These were well paid spies, and efficient on the whole.

But Luis Barro's spies were not to be blamed if they failed to report the departure this day of Officers Starr and Kildare, toward the road leading to the Marcial Ranch, thence toward San Felipe canyon. Sherry and Hope hadn't departed from Patrol headquarters, there near the tall water tower by the river in El Paso. Nor had they departed in daytime. On the strength of information telephoned them by Betty Mary, they had departed hastily at night.

It was the night when Barro was to have sent a dozen aliens across, to be picked up by cars at the upper end of San Felipe Canyon and hastened toward Amarillo, Texas, thence on to Oklahoma and probable safety. And Barro would have made the crossing but for one thing. A spy came to him at sundown that evening.

"The Patrol, they visit Salazar in the jail house," this spy reported.
